

 DEVELOPMENT STUDIES PROGRAMME

STUDY VISITS

FROM SPRING SEMESTER OF 2015 TILL ONGOING
SPRING SEMESTER OF 2022

NED UNIVERSITY OF ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY

HANDS EVENT VISIT - APRIL 2015

Students from the Development Studies program participated in the National Community Convention 2015, engaging in discussions and activities focused on fostering sustainable development and community empowerment.

MOHATTA PALACE VISIT- 2015

Students from the Development Studies program recently explored the historical Mohatta Palace, gaining insights into the intersection of culture and development in this iconic landmark. The visit provided a valuable experiential learning opportunity for understanding the socio-economic dynamics shaping the region.

SAIBAN VISIT - 2016

Students from the Development Studies program recently visited Saiban, gaining firsthand insights into sustainable development practices and community initiatives.

MICRO FINANCE BANK VISIT - 2018

Students from the Development Studies program recently explored the operations of a microfinance bank, gaining valuable insights into the role of financial inclusion in fostering sustainable development.

Students from the Development Studies program recently visited Saylani Welfare International Trust, gaining insights into the organization's humanitarian efforts and social development initiatives.

Denso Hall and Library - 24-DEC-2021

Denso Hall and Library, is a library located in Karachi, Pakistan. Students from the Development Studies program recently explored Denso Hall and Library as part of their academic activities.

Click Talk at KMC Building - 13th January, 2022

Students of the Development Studies program recently visited Click Talk at KMC Building for an insightful session. This engagement provided them with valuable perspectives on contemporary issues in development, enhancing their understanding of the field. The visit aimed to bridge theoretical knowledge with practical insights, enriching their educational experience.

Civil Hospital Visit – 14th January, 2022

It was a part of Public Health Course. Students visited Civil Hospital and attended a session on “How the ICU Department Works”. Students learned about the functions, safety measures and different types of ICU.

EXCHANGE VISIT TO THE ISLAMIA UNIVERSITY OF BAHAWALPUR

This educational initiative aimed to broaden their perspectives on global development issues and foster cross-cultural understanding. The exchange provided a unique opportunity for students to immerse themselves in a diverse academic environment and enhance their knowledge in the field of development studies.